To Whom it may concern

I have enjoyed working with Ken Wallace through my transition as a newly elected official. I took office December 2018 and have been working with Mr. Wallace since January. Mr. Wallace has been available for weekly meetings that focused on institutional as well as personal goals.

I have benefitted from these weekly meetings in gaining a broader perspective. This broader perspective allowed me to expand my initial goals with compromising the number of, or the time frame of my initial goals. In other words, Mr. Wallace's guidance provided a way that I could accomplish bigger goals without doing any more than was required to accomplish my initial goals. This individual coaching has provided a personal calm knowing that the results that I am accomplishing have been achieved by focusing on the big picture rather than getting caught up in the daily natural fluctuations that tend to be distracting.

This new broader perspective has helped personally as well. With an eye on the horizon I am more focused by not letting the daily personal ups and downs distract from my personal and family goals.

In the end, while it is hard to pinpoint specifics, I know it is a culmination of a series of discussions, prayers and actions by Mr. Wallace, that have provided me with a much more comfortable way of managing my newly elected position.

Sincerely Yours,

Blair Williams
